37.—(1) The District Judge may adjourn the court from day to day or to any convenient day. Adjournment of the court.

(2) If a District Judge is not present at the time and place appointed for any sitting of the court, an officer of the court or any other person authorised in that behalf by the District Judge may, by public notice written or oral, adjourn the sitting until such time and to such place as may have been communicated to him by the District Judge and, in the absence of any such communication, to such time and to such place as may be convenient; and all persons bound to be present at the sitting so adjourned shall be equally bound to be present at the time and place appointed by such notice.

(3) In the absence of any such notice and of any notification to the contrary, all such persons shall be bound to be present at the next succeeding time appointed as aforesaid or otherwise for the sitting of the court in the same place.

(4) In all cases of adjournment a District Judge may summon the parties to appear before the court before the expiration of the period to which the case was adjourned.

38. When any day appointed for the sitting or adjourned sitting of the court falls on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, the District Judge shall in such case, if practicable, attend and transact the business appointed to be heard at such sitting as Adjournment over Saturday, Sunday or holiday. KDS 13 of 1981.

aforesaid on the day (not being a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday) next after the day appointed for such sitting.

Change of place of hearing.

39. Subject to the provisions of section 36, the court shall be held only at a place appointed for the sitting of the court; but, on the application of either party or otherwise, the hearing of any case appointed for one such place may, in the discretion of the District Judge, be appointed to be taken by him at another such place within or without the district.

Venue

Venue.

40.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Law and of any other written law proceedings shall be commenced in the court of a District Judge having jurisdiction in the district in which—

- (a) the defendant or any one of the defendants resides or carries on his business at the time of commencing the action; or
- (b) the cause of action or claim arose, wholly or in part; or
- (c) the subject matter of the action is located.

(2) In any case where, under the provisions of section 30 or section 33, an order has been made for the transfer of any proceedings from the court in which they were instituted or commenced to any other court, such last-mentioned court shall, notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) of this section, have jurisdiction to hear and determine those proceedings.

PART VI—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE OF THE COURT

Practice and procedure.

46. In any cause or matter a court may on the application of either party, or on its own motion, make such order for the inspection by the court, the parties or witnesses, of any movable or immovable property, the inspection of which may be material to the proper determination of the question in dispute, and give such direction regarding such inspection as the court may think fit.

Determination by District Judge

District Judge to Be sole judge

47. Subject to the provisions of this law, the district Judge shall be the sole judge in all proceedings brought in the court, and shall determine all questions of fact as well as law.

Recording of Proceedings

Section 48

48 (1) In every cause or matter the District court judge is to either:-

Recording of notes of evidence And minutes of Proceedings

(a) Take down in writing the substance of all oral evidence given before the court and minutes of the proceedings and shall sign the same at any adjournment of the case and at the conclusion thereof, or

(b) Cause the whole or any part of the proceedings to be recorded in shorthand by an official shorthand writer or by audio or any other recording device.

(2) No person is entitled, as of right, to the inspection of or to a copy of the record kept as aforesaid save as may be expressly provided for by the rules of court.

(3) the record so kept as aforesaid or a certified true copy by the registrar is at all times, without further proof, be admitted as evidence of such proceedings and of the statement made by the witnesses.

49. The District Judge after an opening address, if any, shall then proceed to hear the plaintiff and such witnesses as he may examine and such other evidence as he may adduce in support of his plaint and also to hear the defendant and such witnesses as he may examine and such other evidence as he may adduce in his defence and also to hear such other witnesses as the plaintiff may, with leave of the court, examine in reply.

Examination of witnesses.

Arbitration

50.—(1) The District Judge may, with the consent of the parties to any civil proceedings, order such proceedings to be referred to arbitration, whether with or without other matters within the jurisdiction of the court in dispute between the parties, to such person or persons and in such manner and on such terms as he thinks just and reasonable.

Powers of District
Judge to refer to arbitration.

(2) No such reference shall be revocable by any party except with the consent of the District Judge.

(3) On any such reference the award of the arbitrator, arbitrators or umpires shall be entered as the judgment in the proceedings and shall be as binding and effectual as if given by the District Judge.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), the District Judge may, if he thinks fit, on application made to him at the first convenient court held after the expiration of one week after the entry of the award, set aside the award, or may, with the consent of the parties, revoke the reference or direct another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid.

(5) In this section the expression "award" includes an interim award.

51.—(1) The District Judge may refer to a referee for inquiry and report—

Powers of
District
Judge to refer to referee.

- (a) any civil proceeding which requires any prolonged examination of documents or any scientific or local investigation which cannot, in the opinion of the District Judge, conveniently be made before him;
- (b) any civil proceeding where the question in dispute consists wholly or in part of matters of account;

(c) with the consent of the parties in respect of any other matter arising out of the civil proceedings before him in which, for reasons to be recorded by him, he is satisfied that it is proper so to do.

(2) Where any civil proceeding or question is referred as aforesaid, the District Judge may direct how the reference shall be conducted, and may remit any report for further inquiry and report, and on consideration of any report or further report may give such judgment or make such order in the proceeding as may be just.

(3) The District Judge may refer to the registrar any mere matter of account which is in dispute between the parties in civil proceedings and when the District Judge reaches judgment he may use the report presented to him by the registrar as if such report were facts found by him in the course of the trial.

(4) Subject to any order to be made by the court ordering the inquiry, evidence shall be taken at any inquiry before a referee or the registrar, and every such inquiry shall be conducted in the same manner as nearly as circumstances will admit as trials before a court, but not so as to make the tribunal of the referee or registrar a public court of justice.

(5) For the purposes of an inquiry under this section the referee or the registrar shall have power to issue summonses to enforce the attendance of witnesses and compel the production of documents and if any such summons is disobeyed or if a witness so summoned refuses to answer questions or give evidence the referee or the registrar shall report the matter to the District Judge concerned who may take any action as he may deem necessary as if any such summons had issued from his court or as if such witness had refused to answer questions or give evidence in his court.

Witnesses

Services of summons to witnesses.

52. Either of the parties to any cause or matter may obtain from the registrar of the court summonses to witnesses, with or without a clause requiring the production of the books, deeds, papers and writings in the possession or control of the person summoned as a witness and such summons shall be served in accordance with the provisions of rules of court made under this Law.

53.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Evidence Act, any person summoned as a witness in a court who—

(a) refuses or neglects, without sufficient cause, to appear or to produce any documents required by the summons to be produced; or

(b) refuses to be sworn or make an affirmation or give evidence, shall forfeit such sum not exceeding one hundred naira as the District Judge may direct.

Cap. 40
(now Federal).

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), no person so summoned shall forfeit a sum as aforesaid unless there has been paid or tendered to him at the time of the service of the summons such amount in respect of his expenses, including such compensation for loss of time, as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section.

KDS 5 of 1985.

(3) Any person present in court who is required to give evidence but refuses without sufficient cause to be sworn or make an affirmation or to give evidence shall forfeit such a sum as aforesaid.

(4) The District Judge may in his discretion direct that the whole or any part of any such sum, after deducting the costs shall be applicable toward indemnifying the party injured by the refusal or neglect.

54.—(1) In any proceedings pending before a District Court, the court may, upon application either orally or in writing by any party, issue a warrant or order for bringing up before the court any person confined in any place under sentence or under commitment for trial or otherwise, to be examined as a witness in the proceedings.

Evidence of prisoners.

(2) The prisoner mentioned in any such order shall be brought before the court under the same custody, and shall be dealt with in the same manner in all respects as a prisoner required by warrant to be brought before the High Court and examined therein as a witness.

(3) The person having the custody of the prisoner shall not be bound to obey the order unless there is tendered to him a reasonable sum for the conveyance and maintenance of a proper officer or officers and of the prisoner in going to, remaining at and returning from the court.

Absconding Defendant

Apprehension of absconding defendant and procedure
thereon.

55.—(1) Where the plaintiff, at any time before final judgment, proves, by evidence upon oath or affirmation to the satisfaction of a District Judge, that the plaintiff has a good cause of action against the defendant for an amount within the jurisdiction of the court, and that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to quit Nigeria or the State unless he is apprehended, and that the absence of the defendant from Nigeria or the State will prejudice the plaintiff in the recovery of what is claimed, the District Judge shall issue a warrant for the apprehension of the defendant, who, if arrested, shall be served with a duplicate of the plaint at the time of arrest, unless he has been previously served therewith.

(2) The defendant shall, on his arrest, be brought as soon as practicable before a District Judge and, subject to the provisions of section 56, the action shall then be heard and determined and all proceedings consequent thereon be immediately taken, or the District Judge may, if he thinks fit, adjourn the hearing for a reasonable time, whereupon he may liberate the defendant in either of the following cases, but not otherwise, that is to say—

- (a) if the defendant deposits with the District Judge by way of security, a sum equivalent to the sum claimed, and the costs of the action and otherwise; or
- (b) if the defendant gives security to the plaintiff by bond of the defendant and one sufficient surety, to be approved by a District Judge, in a penalty double the sum claimed and costs, conditioned for the defendant's appearance at the hearing; and the bond shall remain in the custody of the registrar.

(3) If an adjournment is made and the defendant fails to make the deposit or to give the security aforesaid, then the District Judge may commit him to prison for safe custody until the action is finally heard and determined:

Provided that—

- (a) no such commitment shall be for a term exceeding seven days, but without prejudice to the power of the District Judge to remand the defendant from time to time, save that no such imprisonment shall exceed one month; and
- (b) upon the final adjudication of the action the District Judge shall order the liberation of the defendant if he is then in custody.
- (4) If judgment is given for the plaintiff at the hearing, the District Judge may pay to the plaintiff out of the sum, if any, deposited as security by the defendant, the amount of the debt and costs and shall repay the surplus, if any, to the defendant.
- (5) If a bond be given as aforesaid and the defendant does not appear at the hearing, then, if judgment is given for the plaintiff, execution may be levied on the bond to recover the amount of the judgment and costs awarded by the District Judge.
- (6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5), if the defendant appears at the hearing of the action, the District Judge shall in such case, when judgment has been given, cancel the bond and deliver it up to the defendant.
- 56.—(1) If the defendant is arrested outside the jurisdiction of the District Judge who issued the warrant to arrest him, he shall on his application be brought as soon as practicable before the nearest District Judge who may liberate him if he complies with the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of section 55.
- (2) The District Judge by whom the defendant has been liberated shall cause the deposit made or the bond entered into by the defendant to be sent with all convenient despatch to the District Court which has jurisdiction to hear and determine the cause.

Defendant may be freed by nearest District Judge if arrested outside of jurisdiction.

Interim Attachment of Property

57. The court may on the application of the plaintiff in any suit and at any stage before final judgment and in such circumstances as may be specified in rules of court made under this Law order the defendant to furnish sufficient security to fulfil any decree that may be made against him in the suit or direct that any property movable or immovable belonging to the defendant shall be attached until the further order of the court.

Interim attachment of property.

Addresses

Addresses.

58.—(1) The party on whom the burden of proof lies shall be entitled to address the court at the commencement of the case.

(2) When the party who began has closed his case, his opponent shall, provided there is any case to meet, announce whether he intends to adduce evidence or not; and if he announces that he does not intend to call evidence the party beginning shall be entitled to address the court for a second time, for the purpose of summing up his evidence, and his opponent shall have a right of reply.

(3) When the party beginning has concluded his case, if the opponent decides to call witnesses, he shall be at liberty in his turn, to open his case, call his witnesses and sum up and comment not only on his own evidence but on the whole case.

(4) If the party opposed to the party who begins adduces evidence, the party beginning shall be at liberty to reply generally on the whole case.

Giving of Judgment

Giving of judgment on conclusion of hearing.

59. On the conclusion of the hearing the court shall—

- (a) either at the same or at a subsequent sitting deliver judgment in the cause and formal judgment shall be entered in the appropriate form; and
- (b) if so required by the plaintiff or defendant and on payment of the prescribed fee, cause to be delivered to the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be, a certified copy of the judgment so delivered.

Judgment in action for recovery of chattel.

60. If the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of any chattel or thing establishes his claim, judgment shall be given either for the delivery of the chattel or thing or for payment of the value thereof as proved at the hearing, as the court may think fit, and in either case the court may award in addition such damages as the justice of the case may require.

What orders may be made.

61. Subject to particular rules, the court may in all causes and matters make any order which it considers necessary for doing justice, whether such order has been expressly asked for by the person entitled to the benefit of the order or not.

62. A person directed to pay money or do any other act is bound to obey the order without any demand for payment or performance, and if no time is therein expressed he is bound to do so within two days after the order has been made, except as to costs if the amount thereof may require to be ascertained by taxation, unless the court shall enlarge the time by the same or any subsequent order.

Decree to be obeyed without demand.

63.—(1) When a judgment is given or an order is made by a court under which a sum of money of any amount is payable, whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counter-claim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise, the court may, as it thinks fit, order the money to be paid either—

Payment and suspension of judgments and orders.

(a) in one sum, whether forthwith or within such period as the court may fix; or

(b) by such instalments payable at such times as the court may fix.

(2) If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of the District Judge that any party to any proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recovered against him, whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counter-claim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise, or any instalment thereof, the District Judge may, in his discretion, suspend or stay any judgment or order given or made in the proceedings for such time and on such terms as the District Judge thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause of inability has ceased.

64.—(1) The issue of any execution in any proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Sheriffs and Civil Process Law.

Execution and power to stay execution.

(2) If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of the District Judge that any party to any proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recovered against him, whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counter-claim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise, or any instalment thereof, the District Judge may in his discretion, stay any execution issued in the proceedings for such time and on such terms as the District Judge thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause of inability has ceased.

Cap. 141.

Finality of Judgment

Judgments
how far final.

65. Every judgment and order of the court shall, except as provided by this Law or any other written law, be final and conclusive between the parties; but the court shall have power to non-suit the plaintiff in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given entitling either the plaintiff or defendant to judgment.

Costs

Apportionment and payment of costs.

66.—(1) All the fees and costs of any action or proceeding in the court, including any arbitration, not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties in such manner as the court may think fit, and in default of any special direction, shall abide the event of such action or proceeding.

(2) Execution may issue for the recovery of any such fees and costs in like manner as for the amount of any judgment obtained in the said court.

(3) The court shall have power to refuse costs in whole or in part to either party.

Setting aside of Judgment and New Trial

Setting aside of judgment given in ab-
party.

67. The District Judge, at the same or any subsequent sitting of the court, may set aside any judgment or order given or made against any party in the absence of such party, and the execution thereupon, and may grant a new trial or hearing, upon such terms, if any, as he may think just, on application and on sufficient cause shown to him for that purpose.

Relisting of causes struck out.

68. Any cause struck out, may, by leave of the District Court, be replaced on the cause list on such terms as to the court may seem fit.

Unclaimed Money in Court

69.—(1) The registrar of every District Court shall in the month of March in each year make out a correct list of all sums of money belonging to suitors in the court which shall have been paid into court and which shall have remained unclaimed for five years before the 1st day of January then last past specifying the names of the parties for whom or on whose account the same were so paid into court.

Suitors' money unclaimed for six years to be forfeited and go to general revenue.

(2) A copy of such list shall be put up and remain during court hours in some conspicuous part of the most convenient court house within the relevant district.

(3) All sums of money which shall have been paid into any such court to the use of any suitors thereof and which shall have remained unclaimed for a period of six years on the 1st day of January next after the said list shall have been put up as aforesaid shall be accounted for by the registrar to the Accountant-General of the State and all such moneys which shall have remained so unclaimed shall be transferred by the Accountant-General of the State to the credit of the general revenue.

Evidence of Record of Proceedings

70. Any entry in any book required to be kept by this Law or for the purposes of any written law or rules of court made thereunder or under this Law or a copy of such entry purporting to be signed and certified a true copy by the registrar shall at all time without further proof be admitted in any court or place whatsoever as evidence of the entry and of the proceedings referred to thereby and of the regularity of that proceeding.

Entries of copies intended to be admissible as evidence.

PART VII—APPEALS

71. Subject to any express provisions to the contrary in any other written law and to the provisions of this Law any person aggrieved by a decision or judgment of a District Judge may appeal therefrom to the High Court.

Right of appeal from decision and judgment of District Judge.

72. An appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution but the court below or the High Court may order a stay of execution either unconditionally or upon the performance of such conditions as may be imposed in accordance with rules of court made under the provisions of this Law or of any other written law.

Right of Appeal

Right of appeal.

73.—(1) Where a decision, judgment or order of a District Judge—

- (a) is given in respect of a sum of one hundred naira and upwards; or
- (b) determines directly or indirectly a claim or question respecting money, goods or other property or any civil right or other matter of the amount or to the value of one hundred naira and upwards,

KDS No 5 of 1985.

any person aggrieved may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, appeal therefrom to the High Court.

(2) Where in any civil proceedings a decision, judgment or order of a District Judge—

- (a) is given in respect of a sum of less than one hundred naira; or
- (b) determines directly or indirectly a claim or question respecting money, goods or other property or any civil right or other matter of the amount or to the value of less than ten pounds,

Cap. 67.

any person aggrieved may with the leave of the High Court appeal therefrom to the High Court.

Procedure on appeal from ex parte order.

74. An appeal shall not lie directly from an order made ex parte but any person aggrieved by such order may apply to the court to vary or discharge it and an appeal will lie from the decision on such application in a like manner as an appeal from other civil proceedings.

Procedure on Appeal

Civil appeals to be in accordance with rules. Cap. 67.

75. Subject to the provisions of this Law the procedure, practice and manner of appeals in civil proceedings, shall be in accordance with the rules made under this Law, the High Court Law and any other written law empowering the making of such rules.

Hearing and Judgment

76.—(1) When on the direction of the High Court under paragraph (b) of section 55 of the High Court Law additional evidence is to be taken by a District Judge and specific findings of fact reported he shall certify such evidence to the High Court which shall thereupon proceed to dispose of the appeal.

Mode of taking additional evidence. Cap. 67.

(2) Unless the High Court otherwise directs, the appellant or the legal practitioner representing him shall be present when the additional evidence is taken.

(3) Evidence taken in pursuance of such direction shall be taken as if it were evidence taken at the trial before the District Court.

(4) When forwarding to the High Court any additional evidence taken in pursuance of such direction the District Judge may express his opinion on the demeanour of the witnesses and of the value of their evidence and may also, if he is the District Judge against whose decision the appeal has been made, state whether or not he would have come to a different decision had the additional evidence been brought forward at the trial.

77. After the pronouncement of the judgment of the High Court, and subject to the provisions in this section contained, the District Judge of the court from which the appeal came shall have the same jurisdiction and power to enforce, and shall enforce, any decision which may have been affirmed, modified, amended or substituted by the High Court, or any judgment which may have been pronounced by the High Court, in the same manner in all respects as if such decision or judgment had been pronounced by himself.

Enforcing of judgment.

Miscellaneous

78. In addition to and without prejudice to the right of appeal conferred by this Law or any other written law, any District Judge may reserve for consideration by the High Court on a case to be stated by him any question of law which may arise in any cause or matter before him or in any appeal before him and may give any judgment or decision subject to the opinion of the High Court.

Reservation of question of law for opinion of High Court.

Power to make rules of court.

79. The Chief Judge may, with the approval of the Governor, make rules of court prescribing anything required to be prescribed by the provisions of this Part, and for regulating the practice and procedure on appeals and the fees and costs thereon, and in particular for the waiving or remission of any fees in respect of appeals by poor persons.

PART VIII—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Fees and Costs

Fees and costs.

80.—(1) The fees and costs set forth in the rules of court made under this Law may be demanded and received by the registrars or other persons appointed to receive such fees and costs for and in respect of the several matters therein mentioned.
